ACTION ALERT

We have an upper level system arriving this evening and into tomorrow morning which will result in some additional light snow for our area. Amounts will vary and not be uniformed with the highest probability around I88 northward.

After this morning's cleanup services we do still have a lot of residual down on surfaces. Our field managers will be out onsite and monitoring conditions overnight, if the precipitation begins to overtake our residual we will trigger and dispatch all our VIP Red Alert crews. If you are in need of any snow related service issues please call our 24 hour snow emergency number at 847-344-1027.
