

STORM SUMMARY 2-18-21

An area of light snow spread into the area between 12-2am. This system of snow pretty much came to an end between 6-8 am and then it turned into a lake effect situation till late afternoon and evening. The lake effect activity reached out into Kane and Will Counties this time. Officially O'Hare had 1.6" inches which pushed the season to date snowfall to 45.8" inches. Romeoville had 1.3" inches with a season to date total of 45.8" inches as well. Rockford has 0.4" inches with a season to date 38.3' inches.

VIP Property Maintenance 847-760-5080/Tecza Landscape Group 847-742-3320