

STORM SUMMARY 11-15-18

Snow began to enter southeast Cook county and eastern Will County around 7am on the 15th. Originally we were not expecting to see any accumulation on paved surfaces north of I88 but the activity pushed rapidly into the northern areas. All zero tolerance salting trucks and sidewalks crews were dispatched around the 9am hour to treat all hardscape surfaces as accumulation occurred.