

STORM SUMMARY 2-24-19

Rain and moisture occurred during the day on Saturday 2-24 and during the overnight hours into Sunday 2-25 when the moisture turned to snow flurries as temperatures dropped below freezing. Winds blew and gusted up to 60 mph hour during the day which helped whip around the snow as temperatures continued to drop to 4 degrees by Sunday night. Zero tolerance crews were dispatched to deice all areas that experienced refreeze early Sunday morning.
